BROWARD COUNTY WOMEN LAWYERS' ASSOCIATION
RISING STAR SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The Broward County Women Lawyers' Association ("BCWLA") is the local Chapter of the Florida Association for Women Lawyers ("FAWL"). We are pleased to announce that we have historically provided recipients with monetary awards starting at $1,000.

BCWLA is awarding this scholarship to students enrolled in a Florida law school (including evening students) who will be graduating within a year of the application period (typically 2L and 3L students). The student must also be a current member of their school's FAWL Student Chapter.

This special scholarship will be presented to law students (female or male) who can strike the perfect balance between their legal studies, legal practice or current career (if applicable), legal community involvement, civic involvement, and familial relationships. The Nominee should be committed to community activities, women's issues, the legal profession, school involvement, family priorities, and extracurricular activities.

The application period is typically open on March 1st of each year.
Interviews are conducted virtually via ZOOM.

The recipient(s) of the Award will be invited to attend the BCWLA Installation Ceremony.

Please note that by submitting your application, you authorize a member of the BCWLA's Award Committee Member to contact references you have identified in your application to discuss your qualifications. You may be called for a virtual interview, if the Committee sees fit. Completely answer all of the questions on the application. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered. You must be available for an interview on announced interview date or your application will not be considered. Unavailability to attend the Installation Ceremony does not disqualify the applicant.
